MEMORANDUM FOR: Special Assistant to the DCI

FROM:

STAT

Chief, Agency Academic Programs, RAPD/OTE

SUBJECT: Intelligence Fellows Invitation to DCI-designate

1. The inaugural running of the Intelligence Fellows Program took place in the summer of 1992. This academically broadening program, which is administered by the CIA for the entire Intelligence Community, is designed to get SIS/equivalent officers in touch with outside experts and with each other. The two and a half week program at [ ] was deemed a success by the 40 Fellows, their sponsoring offices, and by the DCI and other NFIB principals.

2. Because of the importance of ongoing contacts within the Intelligence Community, the Fellows program was designed to continue the networking started at [ ] Quarterly events are planned during the year, the first being a luncheon and discussion with Admiral Bobby Inman. This was held just before the elections, and Inman spoke off-the-record and most candidly. I would like to suggest a breakfast meeting with James Woolsey as the second "event." It would be an opportunity for the new DCI to meet with senior officers from across the Community, and for both sides of the equation to get to know each other. The format could be whatever the DCI felt comfortable with - reverse Q and A's, impressions of the Community from the new head of the Community, etc. Timing is also flexible - the end of February or early March would be perfect. Status of the confirmation hearings should not have any affect.

3. I have attached a program from the August seminar. And I would be happy to brief the DCI on the Fellows Program.
